Education Agent Code of Conduct

Dalton College in conjunction with Western Australian Private Education and Training Industry Association (WAPETIA) have formulated an Education Agent Code of Conduct to form the basis of developing a professional relationship between the school and the agent.

The Code outlines a number of standards for agents to follow in an effort to maintain high professional standards in the marketing and delivery of education services and which safeguard the interests and welfare of students. There are two main areas of the Agent of Conduct. These are:

1. School Responsibilities
2. Agent Responsibilities

1) School Responsibilities

- a) Dalton College foster and maintain a learning environment that is conducive to the success of all students.
- b) Dalton College have demonstrated a strong capacity to deliver the nominated course/s, provide modern and up to date facilities and use appropriate teaching and assessment methods and materials.
- c) Dalton College undertake to market all education and training products with absolute integrity, accuracy and professionalism.
- d) In the provision of information, Dalton College will make no false or misleading comparisons with any other provider or course.
- e) Dalton College strive to provide accurate, relevant and up to date information to agents and students prior to making an application to the schools.
- f) Dalton College undertake to supply all enrolled students with;
 - i. School Orientation / Induction
 - ii. Course Introductory Guide
 - iii. Student Handbook
 - iv. All necessary course materials

2) Agent Responsibilities

- a) The Education Agent is aware of their responsibilities as defined in the National Code and in particular that in representing the schools, the Education Agent acts as a servant of the school, and further, the Education Agent undertakes to ensure that they and any of their staff are fully informed of any changes to the National Code of Practice as they may occur from time to time.
- b) The Education Agent undertakes to ensure that the recruitment of student is conducted at all times in an ethical and responsible manner and consistent with the requirements of the relevant course or curriculum as detailed in materials published by Dalton College.
- c) The Education Agent agrees to ensure that all student selection decisions comply with equal opportunity legislation.
- d) The Education Agent agrees to employ appropriately qualified staff, or to train all staff who will assess the extent to which the applicant meets the pre requisites of the course for which they are applying based on the applicant's qualifications and proficiencies.

- e) The Education Agent undertakes to follow the enrolment procedures as published by the Dalton College and to make available all original applicant documentation to the school upon request.
- f) The Education Agent agrees to ensure that all applicant information collected as part of the applicant and enrolment process is securely and that the handling and divulging of all applicant information complies with Australian Privacy Legislation.
- g) In representing Dalton College, the Education Agent, agrees to abide by the Items 1) to 7) of the Agent Responsibilities as outlined above and contained within the Education Agent Code of Conduct.

I have read, understood and agree to abide by Dalton College Agent Code of Conduct and National Code as outlined above.
